Leeman Field:

The campground allows for easy access to Leeman Field, the town's 33-acre park. Although once the biggest enclosed baseball field in the world, the park now offers a range of facilities including a seasonal swimming pool, playgrounds, horse ring and stables, baseball fields, basketball and tennis courts, volleyball pit, picnic pavilions, amphitheater, and 18-hole disc golf course. The park also includes the 1.4 mile Greenway walking trail which connects it to the Riverbend Shopping Center. The shopping center includes Food City, El Centenario (Mexican restaurant), and Hong Kong Buffet (Chinese restaurant).

On designated summer weekends, Leeman Field hosts a variety of events including ATV Drag Races, Cumberland Horse Association Riding Competitions, and Lee Tractor Association Tractor Pulls. The park also hosts the annual Lee County Fair each August. In addition, the park hosts a variety of holiday festivities and celebrations throughout the year. One example is the annual Town of Pennington Gap Independence Day Celebration which features all-day events and live musical performances. Staying at the campground during these times puts you in the middle of the action at Leeman Field.

Stone Mountain ATV Trail:

Just at the end of the road of the campground is the trailhead for the Stone Mountain ATV Trail, which is a part of the Spearhead Trails system. It features 34 miles of track over 500 acres of land. Riders must have the appropriate helmets and a permit for the trail. For permits and more information, please visit Spearhead Trails or Black Diamond Gas in town at 40554 W Morgan Ave, Pennington Gap, VA 24277.
